

An innovative program of the Blair County Chamber of Commerce

2022 Young Professional of the Year Award

YP Mission Statement:

Provide young professionals a community in which to grow professionally, personally, and civically.

The Blair County Chamber of Commerce Young Professionals of Blair County program would like to recognize a Young Professional in Blair County who is an outstanding figure in their workplace and community. Blair County, like many regions across Pennsylvania, recognizes the value and importance of attracting and retaining our best and brightest professionals. Our goal is to see young professionals grow in this area and make an impact on the community where they live, work and play.

The nomination process:

Currently there are numerous young professionals making a difference in Blair County. Their efforts are positively impacting our region, making it a better place for younger people to live, work, play and invest in our community.

Award criteria:

The 2022 Young Professional Award will recognize one young professional:
